Hello governor, sorry to bother you this is Doc Prehn. Don't even know if this gets to you anymore this number.

My question is simple. My term for the NRB is up in May. In January I'll be elected to my third year as chairman. I heard from legislators they do not intend on confirming anybody soon. And of course the chances of Evers reappointing me are slim to none. I'm wondering if you think it's improper for me to stay on until somebody's confirmed. I know it's been done in the past but is it really the proper thing to do.? I can understand if you don't want to comment.

The change in priorities with the NRB is becoming staggering in the last 6 to 10 months. Maybe they realize they've only got a couple years
If I stay on,Your appointees with hold majority for a while longer

thanks for your time

If possible, stay on. Any voices that can counter their racial view of the world are good.
